Upper Cook Inlet Coal Vs Fish 2012.pdf

Elaine,

Big thank you to Jamey for taking the time to work on this and talk with some contacts – who know you Elaine - at OSM. Encouraging OSM to take a fuller account of the SPR's potential implications for Alaska seems to me to be a useful and important request. Jamey and Matt are definitely our experts on coal mining up in Alaska.

Thank you for considering us out here in the PNW!

Erik-

Here is a general comment on the Stream Protection Rule

Ex. 5 - Deliberative

I hope this helps.

Also, while maybe not translatable to a direct comment on the Stream Protection Rule EIS, there is this USGS article on Alaska's coal resources, with the following abstract excerpt:
